Unfortunates who have for years neglected to consult a competent optician would gladly pay any price. But there are so many cases in which the Optician cannot give the vision he would like to with lenses because the eyes have been constantly strained and continually neglected.

DEATHS

MRS. SIMON DOW

Miss Mary Ann Maxson was born in White county, Ind., Feb. 13th, 1860. She was married to Simon Dow Sept. 18th, 1876. Two children came to bless this union, Clarence and Nellie. The former is a traveling man out of Kansas City, Mo., and a Christian gentleman. The latter is a teacher in the public schools and at present employed in the high school at Coffeyville, Kansas.

Mrs. Dow was converted when only eight years old and united with the Methodist Episcopal church in Malta Bend.

She lived a consistent Christian life. Last Saturday morning Oct. 17th, about seven o'clock she quietly slipped away from us and was not, "for God took her." For thirty two years brother and sister Dow walked together in life's pathway, sharing the joys and toils, and by the help of God they have raised their children in that way that they have gone forth in the honest duties of life with the highest esteem and love for their parents, "calling them blessed."

Sister Dow leaves an aged mother, two brothers, three sisters, a loving devoted husband, two good, kind, loving and noble children, a host of friends and her church to mourn her loss.

She will be missed but let us remember that she led among us a steady, even, quiet life. Her work is now done. The record of her life is now complete and the angels have folded it away. Let us humbly strive to emulate her graces, and in the end be able like her to say, "I am ready, all is well," then death will be unto us as it was unto her.

"Only a dream, only a dream, Glory beyond the dark stream.
How peaceful the slumber,
How happy the waking,
For death is only a dream."

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Will Cummins in the First Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday 1:30 p. m. after which her remains were laid to rest in the Malta Bend cemetery. C.

MISS ROSINA HASEMEIER died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sophia Hasemier, of Emma on Oct. 5th aged 15 years. She had been sick for some time and was taken to Kansas City for an operation which it was thought would benefit her, but she was unable to stand it and died a week after. Her funeral occurred at the Lutheran Cross church on Oct. 7th.

JOHN R. NICHOLS died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nichols, near Koping, last Friday, October 16th of bone erysipelas aged 12 years and 8 months. Undertaker Walker had charge of the funeral arrangement and sent W. H. Hamilton down Saturday to conduct the funeral. His body was laid to rest in Raines private burying ground in Pettis county. A large number were present at the funeral.

He is a Bryan Boy.

A boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Weaver, of near Stanhope, on Thursday, Oct. 15th, and Dr. Wm. Harrison is much troubled about whether he's a Taft or Bryan boy, as the parents are divided on the question. That's easy—he can do like one of our New Frankfort friends vote the Republican and Democratic tickets alternate'y, and of course he'll have an opportunity to vote for Bryan in 1932 but Taft never! After Taft has served two terms, he will retire like too eve't.

Denny Clift and G. L. Crum, of Malta Bend returned Friday from a prospecting trip to New Mexico.

Saline Countians in a Wreck.

Premonition of Danger Saved All of Them.

Because P. J. Hillen, of Arrow Rock, "felt it in his bones" that there was trouble ahead, he and three other prominent Saline county farmers and stockmen are enjoying life in the usual way.

Mr. Hillen, Abe Romine, and Preston Brockway, of Arrow Rock Wellington Stewart, col. of Napton, M. K. Johnson, of Jamestown, J. B. Cheatham, of Lupus, and Chas. St. Clair, of Columbia, started out with cattle for the St. Louis market Monday and the seven men occupied the caboose. The train was delayed and because of the delay the freight was scheduled between two passengers. Knowing this Mr. Hillen said he couldn't sleep and so stood guard at the back door.

Early on Tuesday morning just about daybreak, he saw the passenger train close upon them after passing a curve. The brakeman of the train jumped off to flag the train and Mr. Hillen shouted a warning to his fellow passengers and jumped off himself. He jumped off the rear platform while the others scrambled out of the side door. A minute after the crash came which almost splintered the caboose and also wrecked three cars ahead.

Messrs. Johnson and St. Clair were asleep when the alarm was given and failed to jump in time. The latter was found fifty feet away on the river's edge in an unconscious and bleeding condition. He was taken to the Mo. Pac. hospital in St. Louis and will recover. Some of the train men were bruised in jumping but no one else seriously hurt.

Mr. Brockway had taken off his coat on the train and after the wreck found it on the smokestack of the passenger train.

The wreck occurred on the Main line of the Missouri Pacific, one mile west of Gasconade City. Traffic was delayed till noon, when our people were put on an express train and sent to St. Louis to transact their business. The loss to stock was light.

The track at the point where the wreck occurred runs at the river's edge. To one side is the bluff. As they jumped many rolled down the embankment to the water's edge.

We rejoice with these men and their families in their fortunate escape.

The Revival

The First M. E. church closed its doors for the first time in thirty-six nights last Sunday. The district conference "held forth" three nights, the lecture course three nights more. The rest of the time was occupied in a strenuous evangelistic campaign.

A large share of the work which produced results was done in the afternoon cottage meetings. Four of these were held every day. These were prayer meetings in which Christian workers united their prayers for the conviction and conversion of certain individuals. Personal testimony was so freely indulged in as to remind one of the "good old-fashioned class meeting."

The pastor, Rev. E. O. Smith, led most of the preaching. Seven nights however his father, Dr. R. T. Smith, of St. Louis, was with him and delivered the message. Several nights Miss Dillin spoke, and one evening Dr. McDonald, pastor of the South Methodist church, kindly occupied the pulpit.

Miss Dillin proved to be a consecrated and efficient worker. Her equal is rarely found. The cottage meetings that she daily led were largely attended and they became dynamos of spiritual power. Her solos each night were vibrant with that peculiar quality that moves and stirs humanity to noble action. She was successful as a personal worker and in the pulpit she succeeded not only in holding attention and winning admiration but in producing results. Sixty three persons professed conversion during the meeting. Most of them have joined some church or will do so in the near future. The outlook is very bright for the First M. E. Church. It is the intention to make the Sunday night services evangelistic from this time on.

All 40c, 50c and 65c Wall Paper, spring patterns, at 25c. Geo. N. Hanson.

Excepting the senatorial part any part of the ballot can be "scratched" in the usual way. Any name for state or county or the national ticket may be scratched and an insertion made.
